

International Conference on the Future

June 19-21, 2014. Pescara (Italy)

Dedicated to the memory of

Prof. Enrico Todisco

The "G. d'Annunzio" University in Pescara (Italy) are planning an international conference on the topic of "Future". The conference seeks to bring together policymakers, academicians and other experts to discuss topics related to participation, social scenarios, the future of crime and terrorism, collective intelligence, anticipation and the phenomenon of Lone Wolf Terrorism.

The conference would be hosted by the University "G. d'Annunzio", in June 19-21, 2014.

How to sign up

We need to contact potential speakers and non-speakers and gather information on their interest in attending the conference. Therefore, please get back to us via e-mail to Simone Di Zio (s.dizio@unich.it) and let us know whether you are interested in attending the conference. In case you prefer to attend as a speaker, please give a title, an abstract and the code of the session you are interested in (e.g. PSS1. See the short program below).

Please note that the short program listed below is preliminary, and subject to change. Please also free to contact us in case you need further information on the conference.
